

First World Congress of NLP

in Berlin/Potsdam, May 26 - 28, 2006

A global integral vision of NLP for the development of human potential.

For everyone, who has an interest in successful communication.
Impulses for professional and personal success.
Communicators, personnel developers, social workers, creative professions, salesmen, advanced trainers, physicians, teachers, therapists, coaches, high-level personnel and selfemployed... All will experience at this congress an abundance of suggestions for their daily communication.
This congress is an intensive and playful learning process for the development of human potential, reached through NLP.
In a combination of exciting speeches and stimulating workshops, performed by international outstanding NLP experts.

The organizer is the International Association of NLP Institutes: IN, which stands for the highest ethical and professional standards in NLP. Each qualified NLP'er, which support the Ethic-Codex of the IN and who is interested in mutual advanced training, can become a member of the IN.
